In case you provide us with personal data of third persons, you must have in advance properly informed them, also by referring them to the preset document, and have ensured their consent, where necessary.

2. For which purposes does the Bank collect your personal data and under what legal bases does it process them?

The Bank processes your personal data required each time depending on the processing purpose. In view of the below mentioned processing purposes in case you deny to provide the necessary personal data and/or to update your data the Bank will not be able to fulfill its relevant obligations (legal or contractual etc.). The Bank processes additionally special categories of personal data as defined in art. 9 of the Regulation according to the provisions of the Regulation and the relevant legislation.

A. To service your relationship as a member of the Board of Directors (article 6 para 1b of the Regulation)

Said processing of the data described under section 1 above serves purposes such as:

- a. Your identification.
- b. The communication with you.
- c. The evaluation of your candidature for your appointment as member of the Bank’s Board of Directors.
- d. The setting out or/and evaluation of your competencies, duties, obligations as members of the Bank’s Board of Directors.

- e. The exercise of your rights and the fulfillment of your obligations as Board of Directors' members and the exercise of the Bank's rights and fulfillment of its obligations (i.e. payments) and provision of benefits.
- f. The transfer of your data to third parties to the extent necessary in the framework of the Bank's management and representation and the exercise of your duties as Board of Directors' members in general.
- g. The promotion of the Bank's corporate profile.

Said processing (point A. above) serves also the Bank's compliance with its legal obligations (point B. below) as well as the Bank's or a third party's legal interests (point C. below).

B. To comply with its legal obligations (article 6 para 1c of the Regulation)

The processing of the data described under section 1 above serves purposes such as:

a) The Bank's compliance with obligations imposed by the relevant legal, regulatory, and supervisory framework, international agreements as well as with decisions of authorities (public, supervisory, independent, prosecution etc.) or courts (regular or arbitrary). It is hereby explicitly clarified that the legal, regulatory and supervisory framework in force as well as authorities' or courts' decisions impose, in certain cases, the obligation for the Bank to provide data and cooperate with several authorities/bodies within the framework of requests they have submitted.

b) The protection of persons and property.

Said processing (point B. above) serves also the Bank's or a third party's legal interests (point C. below).

C. To protect the Bank's or a third party's (such as indicatively Group companies, cooperating companies etc.) legal interests (article 6 para 1f of the Regulation)

Additionally, the processing of the personal data described under section 1 above serves purposes, such as indicatively the establishment, exercise and defense of legal claims, the compliance with the Bank's policies, the compliance with the terms of the Bank's contracts with third parties, such as the HFSF, the security and safety of the Bank's information systems, the facilities and assets of the Bank or third parties in general, maintaining the Bank's records, the Bank's reputation, the deterrence of criminal acts or frauds against the Bank or a third party, etc.

D. Upon your consent (article 6 para 1a of the Regulation)

In case we have asked and received your consent, especially when the processing cannot be established on any of the abovementioned (2.A. – 2.C.) legal bases, the processing of your data under section 1 is based on your consent (see indicatively the below mentioned case regarding the data transfer outside the EEA under point 4.c.i.). In such cases, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. Please see below under section 7 how you can withdraw your consent; where relevant, we will also inform you on specific ways to withdraw your consent depending on the way you consented. The processing based on your consent prior to its withdrawal remains unaffected.

E. Automated decision-making including profiling

The Bank does not carry out solely automated individual decision-making. In case the Bank decides in the future to carry out automated individual decision-making, including profiling, that produces legal effects or significantly affects you in a similar way, you will be provided with a specific notice and, where required, you will be asked for your consent.

- k. Any third persons that submit a request to the Bank in order to receive information, pursuant to the law.

For the personal data processing of the abovementioned recipients that act as data controllers, we advise you to consult their personal data notices.

4. Is the Bank entitled to transfer your data to third countries (outside the EEA)?

The Bank may transfer your personal data to third countries or international organizations outside the European Economic Area (EEA) under the following circumstances:

- a) If the Commission decides that the third country, territory or one or more specified sectors within that third country or an international organization ensures an adequate level of protection; or
- b) If appropriate safeguards for data processing have been provided, according to the law.
- c) In the absence of the abovementioned circumstances, a transfer may take place if a derogation as provided for the legislation, including indicatively the following:
 - i. You have explicitly provided your consent to the Bank;
 - ii. The transfer is necessary for important reasons of public interest;
 - iii. The transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

5. For how long will the Bank store your personal data?

Your personal data will be kept for the time necessary for the fulfillment of their processing purpose, otherwise for the time required by relevant the legal and/or regulatory framework or the time necessary for the exercise of claims or defense of rights and legitimate interests.

Additionally, few necessary data of yours as members of the Board of Directors may be part of the Bank's records and will be kept during the entire period said record exists.

6. What are your rights with regard to the protection of your personal data?

You have the following rights to the extent they can be implemented:

- a. To demand to know the categories of your personal data that we store and process, where they come from, the purposes of their processing, the categories of their recipients, their storage period as well as your relevant rights (right of access).
- b. To demand the rectification or/and amendment to your data so that they are complete and accurate (right to rectification) by providing any necessary document justifying the need for rectification.
- c. To ask for a restriction of the processing of your personal data (right to restriction of processing).
- d. To object to the processing of your personal data (right to object).
- e. To obtain the erasure of your personal data (right to erasure), under certain circumstances, such as in cases the data are no longer necessary, you have withdrawn your consent or your data have been unlawfully processed etc.
- f. To ask for the transfer of your data kept by the Bank to another controller (right to data portability).
- g. To withdraw your consent at any time. The legality of the processing based on your consent before its withdrawal remains unaffected and you can consent again to the processing.
- h. Right to complain to the Data Protection Authority: You have the right to lodge a complaint with the Hellenic Data Protection Authority (1-3 Kifissias Ave. 11523 Athens, tel. +30 2106475600) in case you consider that your rights are in any way violated. For the Authority's competence as well as the way to lodge a complaint you can find detailed information on its website (www.dpa.gr – Individuals– Complaint to the Hellenic DPA).

Please note the following as regards your abovementioned rights:

- i. The Bank preserves in any case the right to deny your request for restriction of processing of your data or their deletion, in case their processing or storage is necessary for the exercise of your rights or the fulfillment of the Bank's obligations towards you, as well as for the establishment, exercise of defense of the Bank's rights or its compliance with its legal obligations.
- ii. The Bank has also the right to deny your request for data erasure to the extent that some of these data are not erased but kept for its records as described under point 2.C. above.
- iii. The exercise of these rights is valid for the future and does not affect any previous data processing.

7. How can you exercise your rights under 6 above?

For the exercise of your rights described in the previous section, explicitly including your right to withdraw any given consent, you may contact in writing the Group Company Secretariat (10 Filellinon str., 10557) or by sending an email to CorporateGovernance@eurobank.gr. In this framework and in order to facilitate your request's examination, you are kindly asked to specify which of your right(s) you are exercising.
