

DISCLAIMER

The purpose of this website and its content is to provide general information only about Eurobank and its Private Banking services.

To offer you any type of service, you must first enter into a contract with us, in compliance with the legislation in force. If you wish to work with our Bank, visit any Eurobank Private Banking Centre. We will offer you complete, accurate and reliable information.

Financial transactions carry inherent risks and may lead to loss of part or all of your investments. Certain investments may possibly be unsuitable for your investment goals, needs and financial situation.

To assess specific products and the risks associated by investing in them, you must have the necessary investment knowledge and experience, as well as support for professional, legal, tax or other issues.

Past performance does not guarantee future results. Eurobank does not guarantee the result of your portfolio management.

This website and its content do not constitute nor should be taken as solicitation or offer to proceed with any action, enter into a contract or receive investment advice from Eurobank.