- Type of account that is linked to the Package: Payment Account (Savings/ Current)
- Currency of the account that is linked to the Package: Euro
- Monthly fee: 2 Euros / month
- Collection of a fee for the use of the package: the monthly fee is owed regardless of whether the package has been used that particular month. It is collected through the Account by an automatic debiting that takes place on the 1st business day of every calendar month and concerns the package provided on the previous calendar month. In the case that for any reason the credit balance in the Account is not sufficient on this date, the benefits of the each time package will be automatically deactivated without a notification to the Customer. An attempt will then be made to collect the due fee for the use of the package on a daily basis. During the time that the package's benefits are deactivated, the transactions and services of the Account are priced according to the Banking Transactions Price List. The package will be automatically reactivated as soon as the amount of the due fee is collected. With regard to the collection of the fee for the use of the package for the package, the Customer provides the Bank with the standing order and authorization for the latter to debit the Account with the amount of monthly fee as it stands at the time of the debiting. This order also applies in the case that the package has been deactivated due to non-payment of the due fee for the use of the package or in the case that the Customer has exited the package due to a due fee owed for the previous period.
- Any transactions that have not been made within the month on which they are provided, they shall not be carried over to the following month.
- Any transactions exceeding the number provided for in the package, are priced on the basis of the Banking Transactions Price List applying at the time of execution thereof.
- In case of a joint account, the package refers to the transactions made by or to any of the beneficiaries of the account.
- The customer is entitled at any time to terminate this package or to choose the transition to another package offered by the Bank.

- The package is governed by the Terms of the package, the Terms for the Provision of Payment Services, and the General Terms of Transactions of the Bank. All the aforementioned terms are always available at the Bank's Web-site (www.eurobank.gr/el/oroi-sunallagon) and also available on the branches thereof.
