This includes, but is not limited to, facsimile transmission, electronic mail, telex, telephone, the internet and other forms of electronic communication. The Existing Securities may not be tendered in the Offers by any such use, means, instrumentality or facility from or within the United States or by persons located or resident in the United States or by U.S. persons (each a "U.S. Person") as defined in Regulation S under the U.S. Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). Accordingly, copies of the Offer Memorandum and any other documents or materials relating to the Offers are not being, and must not be, directly or indirectly, mailed or otherwise transmitted, distributed or forwarded (including, without limitation, by custodians, nominees or trustees) in or into the United States or to any U.S. Person or any persons located or resident in the United States, and the Existing Securities cannot be offered for exchange in the Offers by any such use, means, instrumentality or facilities or from within the United States or by U.S. Persons. Securities may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration under, or an exemption from the registration requirements of, the Securities Act. The New Shares have not been, and will not be, registered under the Securities Act or the securities laws of any state or other jurisdiction of the United States, and may not be offered, sold or delivered, directly or indirectly, in the United States or to, or for the account or benefit of, U.S. Persons. Each holder of Existing Securities participating in an Offer will represent that it is not a U.S. Person, it is not located in the United States and it is not participating in such Offer from the United States or it is acting on a nondiscretionary basis for a principal that is not a U.S. Person, that is located outside the United States and that is not giving an order to participate in such Offer from the United States. For the purposes of this and the above paragraph, "United States" means United States of America, its territories and possessions, any state of the United States of America and the District of Columbia.

The Offer Memorandum has been prepared on the basis that any offers of New Shares in any Member State of the European Economic Area (the "EEA") in connection with the Offers will be made pursuant to an exemption under the Prospectus Directive from the requirement to publish a prospectus for offers of New Shares. Each of the Offers is a separate offer for the purposes of the Prospectus Directive. Accordingly, any person making or intending to make an offer in that Member State of New Shares in connection with the Offers may only do so in circumstances in which no obligation arises for the Bank, either of the Offerors or any of the Dealer Managers to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive, in each case, in relation to the Offers. None of the Bank, the Offerors or the Dealer Managers have authorised, nor do they authorise, the making of any offers of New Shares in connection with the Offers in circumstances in which an obligation arises for the Bank, either of the Offerors or any of the Dealer Managers to publish a prospectus for such offers. None of the Bank, the Offerors or the Dealer Managers have authorised, nor do they authorise, the making of any offers of New Shares in connection with the Offers through any financial intermediary.

In relation to each Member State of the EEA, no offer of New Shares which are the subject of the offering contemplated by the Offer Memorandum may be made to the public in that Member State except such an offer that is made:

- (a) to any legal entity which is a qualified investor as defined in the Prospectus Directive;
- (b) in the circumstance falling within Article 3(2)(c) of the Prospectus Directive, provided that no such offer of New Shares shall require the Offerors or any Dealer Manager to publish a prospectus pursuant to Article 3 of the Prospectus Directive.

To ensure compliance with the Swiss Code of Obligations and all other applicable laws and regulations of Switzerland, only the Offer Memorandum (including the IOM and all information incorporated by reference therein or herein and any supplement or amendment thereto) may be used in the context of any invitation to Securityholders to offer to tender their Existing Securities pursuant to the Offers.

General

To participate in an Offer, in respect of each Series, a Securityholder must be a person to whom an Offer can lawfully be made in accordance with the offer restrictions referred to in the section of the Offering Memorandum entitled “Offer and Distribution Restrictions” and (a) in the European Economic Area must either: (i) be a Qualified Investor; or (ii) validly tender sufficient Existing Securities in respect of that Series such that the aggregate Purchase Proceeds in respect of that Series attributable to that Securityholder amounts to at least the applicable Minimum Tender Requirement; and (b) outside the European Economic Area must validly tender sufficient Existing Securities in respect of that Series such that the aggregate Purchase Proceeds in respect of that Series attributable to that Securityholder amounts to at least the applicable Minimum Tender Requirement.

Securityholders should note that the number of Existing Securities whose tenders are finally accepted by the relevant Offeror may be limited in the event that (i) the aggregate number of New Shares that would be issued to Securityholders pursuant to the Offers if all valid tenders of Existing Securities were finally accepted by the relevant Offeror, together with (ii) the number of New Shares allocated to investors participating in the Institutional Offering, would exceed the number of New Shares that the Bank would be required to issue in accordance with the terms of the Offer and the Institutional Offering in order to satisfy the Capital Requirement. See the section of the Offer Memorandum entitled "Further Information and Terms and Conditions – Debt Settlement Date and Scaling of tenders" for further details.

If any such scaling reduces the applicable Purchase Proceeds in respect of a Securityholder that is not a Qualified Investor to an amount that is less than the Minimum Tender Requirement, then the acceptance of the Existing Securities tendered by such Securityholder shall be cancelled and the relevant Existing Securities shall be unblocked and released for trading in accordance with the usual procedures of the Clearing System.

The Offer Memorandum does not constitute an offer to buy or the solicitation of an offer to sell Existing Securities and/or New Shares, and tenders of Existing Securities in any Offer will not be accepted from Securityholders in any circumstances in which such offer or solicitation is unlawful. In those jurisdictions where the securities, blue sky or other laws require an Offer to be made by a licensed broker or dealer and any Dealer Manager or any of their respective affiliates is such a licensed broker or dealer in any such jurisdiction, such Offer shall be deemed to be made by such Dealer Manager or affiliate, as the case may be, on behalf of the relevant Offeror in such jurisdiction.

In addition to the representations referred to above in respect of the United States, each Securityholder participating in an Offer will also be deemed to give certain representations in respect of the other jurisdictions referred to above and generally as set out in the section of the Offer Memorandum entitled "Procedures for Participating in the Offers". Any tender of Existing Securities pursuant to the Offers from a Securityholder that is unable to make these representations may be rejected. Each of the Bank, the relevant Offeror, the Dealer Managers and the Offer Agent reserves the right, in their absolute discretion, to investigate, in relation to any tender of Existing Securities pursuant to an Offer, whether any such representation given by a Securityholder is correct and, if such investigation is undertaken and as a result the Offeror determines (for any reason) that such representation is not correct, such tender may be rejected.
